Dear IMDB,

I emailed imdb.com several times about getting some information removed from my personal profile page and they referred me to you. I was told to mail in some verification, but the only document I had was my birth certificate, which is in another language, so they requested I send in additional information. I'm now enclosing a faxed notarized letter from my attorney as another legal document (the hardcopy is being sent by snail mail right now).

Enclosed is the attorney letter and my birth certificate. Please remove the birthdate as it is not correct. Thank you for your time. Best wishes.

Sincerely,

Junie Hoang

Hi. I emailed IMDB and asked them to remove the birthdate off my homepage profile. (under "Junie Hoang") because it was incorrect. They told me to mail my birth certificate for verification that it was wrong. Thanks
